DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

Located on the corner, to the rear of the First Unitarian Church, this one story building is of running bond. The three bay entrance facade has a stepped parapet which obscures the gable end of the roof. Six granite stairs ascend to double entrance doors. Each door has 4 nearly square panels, the top two of glass, and they are topped by a fanlight. The facade is ornamented by blind arcading in brick. The entrance and two flanking round headed 7-over-6 double hung windows have fully arched brick lintels and stone sills and are set into shallow arched recesses, which are set within the arcading. There is a wood cornice above the windows. The parapet is ornamented by 3 recessed brick panels, the center one containing a segmentally arched attic vent. Each portion of parapet has a narrow molded cornice.
